He thinks that "Govt: has Committed itself to treat these poligar pensions as property heritable under the rule of Union Law". 49 The facts of this case are on all fours with the Parasuramappa Naicker's case. (S.A. file to 40 of 1925.) In my opinion given in that case, (Date 18-4-1928) I have stated that "a distribution of pension need not Strictly according to Hindu Law" & as its disposal is entirely within the discretion of Govt.

50 In the present case the stipends were given to females for their lives & these females have left no issues.

Govt may follow the ruling in S.A. of 1925 & lapse to Govt the pension given to Eswaramma Nagathi.

51 As regards the 2nd question, according to Mitakshara, the applicants stand in equal degree & are Sapindas. They become equally entitled if the Hindu Law is applied.

52. In sanctioning the pension to Eswara Nagathi after the death of Ramasamma Naicker it was distinctly stated that the pension was granted as maintenance to the mother of the last holder of the pension. In this view the claims of the reversioners was not considered. (vide the Endorsement) It is clear that the Hindu Law was not applied.

S+A 40-25 (1-4, 10+11)

53 Hence it appears to me that this is a fit case for the application of the doctrine of Lapses in the case of pensions granted to Widows during their lives for the benefit of their children. Draft as per legal opinion herewith (vide S.A.
